OFFICE OF GOVERNMENT ETHICS

5 CFR Ch. XVI

Semiannual Regulatory Agenda, April 1995

AGENCY: Office of Government Ethics.

ACTION: Semiannual agenda of substantive regulations.

SUMMARY: The following Office of Government Ethics (OGE) substantive and procedural regulations are scheduled for development or review during the period from April 1, 1995, through March 31, 1996. This agenda fulfills OGE's responsibility to publish a semiannual regulatory agenda under Executive Order 12866 "Regulatory Planning and Review" and has been prepared in accordance with guidance received from the Office of Management and Budget. None of the OGE regulations in this April 1995 agenda will have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities as defined under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. chapter 6. In addition, none of the listed OGE regulatory actions is procurement-related. This OGE agenda does include some procedural rulemakings for which Regulation Identifier Numbers have been obtained and which the Office of Management and Budget will review under Executive Order 12866. Furthermore, the Office of Government Ethics rulemakings are not included in The Regulatory Plan.

This publication in the Federal Register does not impose a binding obligation on the Office of Government Ethics with respect to any particular item on its agenda. The dates shown for the future steps of each action are estimates and not commitments to act by the date shown. Moreover, other OGE regulatory actions, in addition to the entries listed, are not precluded.

Abstract: Proposed regulation will interpret section 208(a) of title 18, U.S.C., which prohibits officers and employees of the executive branch from officially participating personally and substantially in a particular matter in which there is a personal financial interest or a financial interest of a related person or organization (absent a waiver under 18 U.S.C. 208(b)). Abstract: Interpretive regulation giving guidance for the executive branch on the various substantive restrictions of the current version of the post-Government employment conflict of interest statute 18 U.S.C. 207, which became effective January 1, 1991, amended. Parts of the regulation, dealing with procedures for waivers by the Office of Government Ethics of certain senior official constraints (based on executive agency hardship), designated senior employees, and separate agency designations, have already been published in the Federal Register. The Office of Government Ethics also has continued to publish in the CFR the interpretive regulation, 5 CFR part 2637 (but now without the no-longer-effective former Senior Employee and old agency component designation listings), under the lifetime bar of the prior version of the post-employment law which still applies to executive branch employees who left the Government before January 1, 1991.

Once a complete current post-published, the old part 2637 regulation
